American Art Program

- Program: The American Art Program focuses on the American fine and decorative arts and is committed to scholarship and the overall enhancement of the field. The program is national in scope and provides support for all periods and genres of American art history. American art includes art related to the American experience in the United States, specifically the scholarly study of American painting, sculpture, prints, drawings, decorative arts, photography, and architecture. The program is limited to the visual arts, and does not include grants for film or broadcast media.
- Funds: Not available
- Deadline: Letters of inquiry: March 1, 2004
Full proposals: June 15, 2004
- Eligible: American museums with a commitment to American art.
- Information: The Henry Luce Foundation, Inc., 111 West 50th Street, #4601, New York, NY 10020, Telephone: (212) 489-7700, Fax: (212) 581-9541, Link: <http://www.hluce.org/3amartfm.html>

Creative Capital Foundation

Multi-Arts Production Fund Grants

- Program: Administered by the Creative Capital Foundation, the Multi-Arts Production Fund is accepting applications from nonprofit organizations that have been in existence for at least two years to support projects for the commissioning, development, and production of new work in theater, music composition, dance, puppetry, opera, and interdisciplinary performance. Proposed projects must be for a new work that has not been previously produced, except in developmental workshops. Activities that have been supported through the program include commissioning of artists, research and development, artist residencies, and the costs associated with the production of new work.
- Funds: Number of awards: up to 40
- Deadline: March 27, 2004
- Eligible: Nonprofit organizations
- Information: Moira Brennan, MAP Fund Program Coordinator, Multi-Arts Production Fund at Creative Capital, 73 Spring Street, Suite 401, New York, NY 10012, Telephone: (212) 216-1677, E-mail: mapinfo@mapfund.org, Link: <http://www.mapfund.org/generalinfo.html>

Altria Group

2004 Visual Arts Grants Program

- Program: The Altria Group's visual arts program is designed to:
- Foster artistic development;
 - Promote innovation and diversity;
 - Challenge existing art forms;

- Present a bold examination of aesthetic, cultural, or societal issues; and
- Investigate the use of new materials and concepts.

In this funding cycle, Altria will award grants for the organization and mounting of exhibitions that are scheduled to begin no earlier than September 2004 and no later than March 2006. Exhibitions may be a single artist retrospective, a thematic group exhibition, or a series of projects tied together by a common theme. Preference will be given to touring exhibitions, exhibitions that promote contemporary artists who are under-recognized or culturally diverse, and exhibitions that explore innovative use of materials.

Funds: Range of grants: $10,000 to $100,000
Deadline: February 13, 2004
Eligible: U.S. nonprofit, tax-exempt organizations

W.K. Kellogg Foundation

John Glenn Institute for Public Service and Public Policy at Ohio State University

John Glenn Scholars in Service-Learning Program

Program: With support from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation, the John Glenn Institute for Public Service and Public Policy at Ohio State University has established the John Glenn Scholars in Service-Learning program. The institute will recognize twenty-five scholars – five during the first year and ten during each of two succeeding years – whose scholarship contributes to advancing the understanding of or adoption of service-learning, with specific emphasis on elementary and secondary education. The institute seeks contributions from scholars whose work addresses gaps in service-learning research. Areas of emphasis will change from year to year and will reflect emergent issues and priorities. The current areas of emphasis are:

- 1) Teacher education; and
- 2) Rising scholars related to kindergarten through grade 12 education, undergraduate, or graduate students.

Papers may report original research on service learning; develop teaching, practice, policy, or resource development strategies for service learning; link service-learning to broader social goals; or otherwise further the adoption of or understanding of service-learning in elementary and secondary schools. Papers may incorporate new research or have appeared in other sources.

Funds: Award size: $1,000

Deadline: March 12, 2004

Eligible: Individuals
